Details

With up to 1000 lumens of light in three different temperatures, the Primus Frontier Camping Lantern 1000 provides tons of light for work and play, and warm mood lighting to relax by.

Equipped with dimmable natural, cool and warm light settings, the Frontier also has a flickering candle mode, so you can really step-up the romance on a quiet evening in the outdoors. Ideal for your camp kitchen the top lens is removable for unimpeded lighting in all directions.

The convex reflector distributes light evenly and a battery life indicator, rubberised handle and water-resistant case make the Primus Frontier 1000 Lantern ideal for camping and around the home.
