~~$399.99~~ $219.00

Details

There's no excuse to stay indoors on your devices over a long weekend when you can set up your outdoor sleeping quarters in under 2 minutes. With the latest Instant Up Silver range from Coleman, all you have to do is lay the tent down, spread the fabric out and extend the poles until they lock into place. Simply throw the waterproof fly over the tent and you're ready to start settling in for a peaceful and dry night's sleep.

Three large mesh windows with roll up flaps keep the tent cool during the day and maintain a steady flow of air at night. The Instant Up has a roomy interior with headspace for even the tallest user, which leaves plenty of room to stand up in and enough floor space to fit a queen air bed.

For a trouble-free set up on your next weekend away, you can't go past a simple shelter like the Coleman Instant Up.
