

Gasmate
Single Grill Plate

$19.90

Details

Sure, boiling pasta, chewing your way through muesli bars and chowing down on some rehydrated meals is totally adequate. But is it the same as a hearty brekkie of bacon and eggs, or some grilled veggies and meat for dinner? Absolutely not.

Add a Single Grill Plate from Gasmate to a portable cooker, and you've got (almost) everything you need for a grilled meal when you're off the grid. The non-stick coated aluminium surface will ensure that you won't have smeared or burnt food, and it's easy to clean which means more time relaxing, and less time washing up.

The Single Grill Plate from Gasmate is an excellent addition to your outdoor cooking set up and lets you create delicious, simple grilled meals.

Easy to clean
Non-stick coated aluminium
Ideal for portable butane canister/lunchbox style stoves
