$6.90

Details

Ever feel like a side of mushroom sauce with your meal? Or maybe you'd love some on the side with your bacon and eggs in the morning? Only problem is you're in the middle of nowhere so where are you going to store fresh mushies?

Campers Pantry have made taking vegetables with you on your adventure so easy, with their snap dried range of Australian grown produce that weighs 90% less than fresh food. They're also blanched before they're freeze-dried, so half the work is already done for you.

You can either add the veggies to your meal - stirring them through adding water if necessary until cooked, or you add them to boiling water for 2 minutes and they'll be ready to eat.
