Details

If you're looking to secure your Dometic 970 series portable toilet to the floor of your vehicle when you're on the road, then the Fixing Kit from Dometic is the answer.

Constructed from stainless steel which resists corrosion, this kit works with the lower tank locking handle of your portable toilet. This ensures that you can easily remove it when you need it and will also secure it while you're moving.

Compatible with the 972 and 976 models, the Fixing Kit is the perfect solution to keep your toilet sturdy when you're out exploring.

Fits the Dometic 972 and 976 portable toilets
Stainless steel hardware resists corrosion
Enables you to remove it if necessary
Designed so that the toilet can be removed if required
