~~$549.95~~ $489.90

Details

The Superdome is a design Darche have been making for over a quarter of a century, but they've re-engineered it for modern outdoorsy people, hunters and campers alike. For the adventurous couple who likes a simple and clean set up the Superdome double will keep you and your partner comfortable in the great outdoors.

One of the unique features on this swag is the dome head entry which was put in place with shooters in mind. With a pole at the head, middle and foot of the design you'll have plenty of space inside the swag without feeling like the walls are closing in. Darche mattresses aren't your average run-of-the-mill roll delicate piece of foam, they're seriously substantial as they use 70mm thick foam. Coupled with a pillowy Cold Mountain Sleeping Bag, you won't even feel like you're not sleeping in a bed.

Manufactured using premium sewing techniques, with Darche's famous wax-coated canvas, and highly durable zips and buckles- you've got one rock-solid swag that will probably outlast us all. Best of all there's a lifetime warranty on Darche swags, so you can confidently buy this swag knowing it was made with many years of usability in mind.
