Details

If you're considering heading to the centre for an outback trip, then you'll need a sturdy shelter to sleep in, like the Sturt Expedition Double Swag from OZtrail.

This double swag is constructed tough 230gsm Satproof 600+ rip-stop canvas and has an alloy front pole and fibreglass rear pole for structure. It's also designed to taper towards to head for more room right where you need it in your swag. With a 5cm high-density open-cell mattress to lay on and a zip top entry for easy access - this swag is really user-friendly.

You can ventilate while keeping insects at bay thanks to the full-sized mesh panel on the front. And, if you're expecting a drizzle of rain, then you zip up the main entrance and still get air flow through the top mesh panel covered by an awning.

If you always lose track of your valuables, then the good news is that you can keep your phone, keys or headtorch organised in the two internal storage pockets. The perfect size for a camper and their pooch, or the roaming couple - the Sturt Expedition is a simple and affordable option for outback tours and adventures.
