~~$99.95~~ $84.90

Details

With a length of just 113mm, and a weight of only 80g - the Led Lenser P5 torch is the durable and compact unit that'll fit into your pocket.

Packaged in a sleek black box that's perfecting for gifting, this torch provides 140 lumens of light and is small enough to attach to your keychain making it ideal for daily carry. It's also a great back up option to keep in your daypack or with the rest of your camping gear should you need it. The P5 is powered by one AA battery which is also included, making it suitable for emergency use as it doesn't need to be recharged.

You can easily change the light with one hand thanks to the Rapid Focus Technology, and this unit P5 also has the brand's Advanced Focus System for a seamless transition from close range lighting to long-distance beam. Effective, compact and durable - the P5 torch from Led Lenser can be used on your weekend getaways and day to day adventures.
