$12.90

Details

The Wilderness Wash we have used for years in a compact bottle for trekking is now available in a large 250ml bottle to cater for groups and family camping. It's the same super concentrated formula and comes in a durable leakproof bottle that packs easily into your camp kit.

It's also phosphate free, paraben free and compostable, which will give you peace of mind that you won't be depositing harsh chemicals into the environment. The bottle itself is leak-proof with a small nozzle for getting the right amount of product and a secure lid so that it doesn't come loose and get on your gear. Even though this wash is biodegradable, it's best to use it at least 100m from any waterways so that you leave no trace.

For group washing, whether it be laundry, kitchen or personal, a 250ml bottle of Wilderness Wash from Sea to Summit will cater for everyone all whilst caring for the environment.
