Details

For support and stability on your weekend strolls, you can depend on the Siren Q2 Sandals from Merrell.

The upper of this sandal is made from waterproof nubuck leather with a neoprene lining for extra padding, so you won't have a blister in sight. The compression moulded EVA foot frame and integrated footbed provides cushioning, the dual-density midsole helps with alignment, and the sole with 3.0mm lug depth provides durable traction on diverse terrain.

Whether you're running around on the weekend, going on holiday, or just need a reliable pair of shoes for the warm weather - the Siren Q2 Sandal from Merrell is a solid choice.
