Details

When you've packed your daypack and you're ready to hit the trail, but the weather isn't looking so great, chuck on the Storm III WP Shoes from The North Face for grip in wet conditions.

The upper is made from breathable mesh and a suede geo quarter panel for support in your midfoot area. The tongue and collar feature luxurious foam for comfort, while the gusseted tongue keeps out water and prevents debris from getting in your shoes. The OrthoLite footbed provides cushioning, while the snake plate protects your forefoot, and the varied lug pattern of the Vibram sole delivers traction on wet or dry terrain.
