Details

Add support and structure with some help from the Big Foot U-Clip Aluminium Ridge Rail Support Pole from Supa Peg. This pole is particularly useful for longspanning ridge rails.

This pole is made from hard structural aluminium and is anodised to give it extra strength. One end has a nylon U-clip which easily secures onto a square ridge rail. You can easily adjust this pole as it has a twist lock mechanism which will provide incredible locking power that rivals other poles on the market.

The base has an end cap which provides a 32mm footprint and has drain holes which provides this pole with extra stability.

Made from hard structural aluminium
Nylon end cap with drainage holes for stability
Patented twist lock mechanism
Nylon U-Clip
Made in Australia
