Details

As if the Chute bottle we have come to love wasn't cool enough, Camelbak has gone one step further to make it even easier to deliver H2O right down your throat with the absolute least of effort.

The new Chute Mag bottle has a handy little magnet integrated into the cap that keeps the lid from flapping in your face while you take a swig. Once the lid is stowed on its magnetic holder, you can sip away one-handed through the angled spout without spilling. When you're ready to refill the whole cap comes off to reveal a wide mouth opening that makes filling up with water and ice cubes a cinch.

BPA, BPS & BPF free, the Chute Mag 1L Bottle has a durable leak-proof design with a large carry loop that easily accommodates two fingers for carrying, or can be clipped to a pack when not in use.

Magnetic top that keeps the cap stowed while you drink
One-handed drinking or pouring
Angled spout for high flow without sloshing
Wide mouth opening for easy cleaning and filling
100% free of BPA, BPS and BPF
Durable and leak proof
Easy to carry handle
