Details

Help your body recover faster after intense exercise with the Mango & Passionfruit Recover Drink from PREPD. This post-workout hydration drink was developed by Flinders University and the Adelaide Football Club and is to be consumed immediately after exercise. Recover drink has a blend of low sugar levels and electrolytes to replenish your fluids and also has 16g of the patent-pending resistant starch formulation that also helps to boost rehydration in recovery. This mango and passionfruit flavoured drink also has a smoothie like texture, while being certified by HASTA for your peace of mind. Improve your rehydration in recovery by adding the Recover Drink from PREPD to your routine.
