Details

Wine drinkers rejoice! The PlatyPreserve Bottle provides the icing on the cake for that stunning al fresco meal by ensuring your red or white wine is preserved in a lightweight, airtight, oxygen-free environment. Just pour your wine (or any other beverage) into the PlatyPreserve, squeeze out all the air, seal it with the air-tight cap and it'll keep for days, or even weeks! The durable construction means you can carry it in your pack, secure in the knowledge that it will not leak, while the food grade lining is 100% taste free. Pouring is a breeze thanks to the angled spout and once you're finished with it, the bottle collapses down flat for easy storage. Whether you're heading to a concert, going camping, or tackling your favourite trail - the PlatyPreserve Bottle from Platypus will keep your wine safe and sound for your adventure. Collapsible yet durable packaging Convenient and portable Food grade lining 100% taste free Preserves the taste of your wine Angled spout for easy filling 800ml capacity
