Details

Comfortably cart around everything but the kitchen sink on longer expeditions, with the Aircontact 75+10 Pack from Deuter. Now 15% lighter than previous designs, this pack features the Aircontact back system which is designed to lighten heavy loads. It has a flexible aluminium X frame, foam cushioning for ventilation, a Vari Quick adjustment system to get the perfect fit, pivoting ergonomic hip belt and an adaptable shoulder harness. The front zipper opening provides easy access to gear, the bottom compartment allows for separation, the stretch compartment is ideal for dirty clothes, the side external pockets are perfect for fast access items, the lid is adjustable for extra volume and can be removed and used as a daypack. Carry your hiking poles by the attachment loops, use the rain cover in adverse weather, and add a separate 3L hydration system for easy drinking. Whether you're hiking or travelling, the Aircontact 75+10 from Deuter will help you haul all your gear without any dramas. 15% lighter than previous models. An adjustable lid that can be removed and used as a day pack. Bottom compartment with a removable separator. Stretch compartment for wet clothes. Hiking pole attachment loops. Padded hip belt.
