Details

The sleek, comfy and supportive Siren Edge Q2 Shoes from Merrell will have you feeling light on your feet as you wander along the trail.

These shoes have a lightweight mesh and synthetic upper which are easy to put on thanks to the traditional lace closure, while the bellows tongue safeguards against debris kicking up into your shoes. The interior of the Siren Edge Q2 features a moulded nylon arch shank and a contoured insole with triple zone arch support to lightly support your feet. The midsole technology is gender-specific to women to help naturally align your feet for superior comfort as you go about your day, and traction is provided by the M Select outsole for slip-resistance across all kinds of surfaces.

Whether you've got a day of chores around the house, or an afternoon hike planned - the Siren Edge Q2 Shoes from Merrell is the streamlined and stylish option.
