Details

Manage the fuel and the flames in your BioLite FirePit with the super useful FirePoker from BioLite. This poker is designed to work perfectly with your existing FirePit, as it has a broad flat edge to stoke fuel and help you stack logs properly. It also has a curved point which hooks onto the fuel rack of the FirePit, so that you can adjust it back and forth from the wood to charcoal setting without any dramas. To keep your hand cool, the handle is dipped in silicone and it's made of stainless steel for durability. Instead of struggling with a stray stick, grab a FirePoker from BioLite to manage your BioLite FirePit. Made from stainless steel Silicone dipped cool touch handle Broad flat edge helps to stoke fuel and ensure that wood is properly stacked Curved point hooks onto FirePit's fuel rack for adjustment to charcoal or wood setting Designed for use with the separately available BioLite FirePit
