Details

Don't let the sleek athletic exterior fool you, the Women's Siren Edge Q2 Mid WP from Merrell are waterproof, stable and provide gender-specific support for your adventures.

Your feet will be nice and dry as you go about your activities, as these boots have Merrell's M Select DRY membrane that keeps water out and lets perspiration escape. The mid-cut upper is made from mesh and synthetic for lightweight support, while the traditional lace closure provides a secure fit. To keep debris out, these boots have a bellows tongue, while the contoured insole has a triple-zone arch gives you the support you need while walking.

The midsole on the Siren Edge is engineered to provide women's specific alignment for extra comfort, the antimicrobial agents will keep your feet feeling fresh and you'll have plenty of grip and traction thanks to the M Select GRIP outsole. Hit the trail with confidence, in a pair of the Women's Siren Edge Q2 Mid Waterproof from Merrell.
