

Black Wolf
Self Inflating Pillow Regular
$25.00

Details

There's nothing worse than waking up in the morning with a crick in your neck from sleeping on a folded-up jumper instead of a pillow. Which is why chucking a lightweight and space-saving gem like the Black Wolf Self Inflating pillow is probably a good idea.

If you're in the habit of smooshing your face into your pillow every night, then you'll be happy to know that this pillow has a micro stretch polycotton top - so it's comfy and soft. Best of all, the regular size fits into the pillow slipcover on the Black Wolf Sleeping bag perfectly, so it won't slide around if you move around.

The high flow valve makes inflation a breeze, and the included stuff sack is super handy for protecting your pillow, or it can be repurposed for other storage if you like. Give your head and neck support you'll need for a restful night of sleep, with the Black Wolf Self Inflating Pillow.
