Details

Why didn't I think of that? The Black Wolf Tuff All Season King Sleeping Bag redefines what we know about an 'all-round' sleeping bag. We think including the word "tuff" in the description is not an overstatement.

With two compartments designed to allow versatility in differing climates, the Synsilik lined summer compartment is perfect for all but the warmest of nights, while in the depth of winter you can sleep warm burrowed into the flannel lined compartment.

The tough polycotton canvas outer features a durable water repellent finish and extra tough zips, protecting you and your bag from the elements, while the interior of the bag is kitted out with all the draft tubes and pockets you need to stay comfortable in any season. Storage and transportation is easy with the all-in-one pack and store carry sack.
