Details

Don't let sweat and oil soak into your sleeping bag. All that grime makes your investment less efficient and a bit smelly, and it's hard enough to clean anyway! Instead, use a Roman Lightweight Silktex liner.

A rectangular shape that is ideal for general use camping sleeping bags, these liners will protect your bag and are much easier to throw in the wash after your trip.

Made from soft touch Silktex fabric and complete in its own carry/storage bag, the Roman liners are an affordable and effective way of keeping your sleeping bag in tip-top shape.
