Details

A lightweight single compartment daypack, the Deuter Airlite 26 SL has a slim design to comfortably fit a female figure, whilst offering space for all your daily work and post work requirements.

Cool and comfortable thanks to the Deuter Aircomfort Back System facilitating airflow from three sides whilst maintaining an ergonomic fit through a lightweight sprung steel frame that moves with your body and transfers load perfectly to your hips.

Hydration compatible, the Airlite also features side mesh pouches, a zippered top accessory pocket with key clip, and zippered mesh pockets on the hip fins. Finished off with a stretchy stash pocket on the front and a built-in rain cover, the Deuter Airlite 26 SL is perfect for the active female.
