Details

In the back of your ute, or strapped to a yak, the Tatonka Barrel Bag XL is large and tough enough to go on any expedition. If your mode of transport stops, you can pull out the backpack straps and continue on foot.

Made with robust and waterproof tarpaulin material with extra padding and a layer of Textreme polyester over the base for extra durability, the Barrel bags are the most indestructible bag in the Tatonka range.

A zippered mesh pocket on the back of the lid along with two interior accessory pockets help keep things organised, along with rubberised grab handles on each end and a top carry handle make for easy handling.
